

ALL CITY NIGHT REVIVED

On Friday, April 7, 1995, the Lehman, Lincoln, McKinley and Timken Alumni Associations will sponsor the first "All City Alumni Basketball Night". This event will be held at the Canton Memorial Fieldhouse and will feature a tip-off game at 7:15pm between Lehman and McKinley. The Lincoln and Timken game will follow at 8:45pm.

Participants in the basketball game will be former players and coaches that were involved with the All City games from 1950-1976. Cheerleaders, pep bands and majorettes will also be participating in the activities. After the games, everyone is invited to the Four Winds Restaurant for a social get together.

The purpose of the "All City Alumni Basketball Night" is to raise funds for scholarships. The proceeds will be divided equally between all four Alumni Associations. Tickets to the event may be purchased for $ 3.00 each at the following ticket outlets:

Taggart's Ice Cream -
Fulton Rd. and Belden Village Restaurants
Grandma's Kitchen
Lehman Middle School
Michael's Restaurant
Scott Costume
Frank's Produce
Cavalon Draperies
Hub Victor

Canton Memorial Fieldhouse
Four Winds Restaurant
Mangs Variety
Silers
Redman Auto Supply

Tickets may also be purchased from any of the officers and trustees.

Plan to attend and cheer our team to victory!!

POLAR PARTY A SUCCESS

The annual Polar Party was held at the Meyer's Lake Elks Club Saturday, January 14th. It was a great evening of food, fun and fellowship with nearly 100 in attendance.

Thanks to everyone who donated items for the silent auction which raised $ 428.00 for the scholarship fund.
